

Ohio Legislature Passes $2 Billion Appropriations Bill

$5.4 Million of Cuts Restored By Lawmakers

Senate Wrangles Until Midnight Before Giving Okay

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The $2 billion state appropriations bill—with $5.4 million restored from previous cuts—is on its way to the governor.

Relieved state lawmakers are turning their attention to bills that stand between them and final adjournment. But it's increasingly doubtful they can finish the job before next week.

The House gave final approval, almost strictly along party lines, to the budget bill late Thursday night by a 75-47 margin. The Senate stayed in session until after midnight, finally giving its approval by a 20-17 vote.

Both Houses Voted

Both houses were voting on the report of a conference committee—three senators, three representatives—which sought to reconcile Senate and House versions of the budget bill.

The measure provides the money to run state government from now until June 30, 1963. The House trimmed about $26.1 million before passing the bill originally the Senate $16.7 more.

As finally approved by both houses, the total is $2,030,826,370, a decrease of $37 million from the governor's suggested minimum budget. Gov. Michael V. Disalle, a Democrat, made one higher budget suggestion earlier, but Republicans, who control both houses of the legislature, refused to consider it, saying it was $75 million out of line.

Warns of Tax Hike

But Sen. William H. Deddens, R-Hamilton, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, warned that increased rates of state spending could result in an "increase in state taxes of $100 million for the next (1963-65 biennium) two-year period."

The biggest restoration is $4.4 million for state universities.

Ohio State would get $2,344,621 more, Kent State $569,629, Miami $551,349, Ohio University $521,320, Bowling Green State $402,950 and Central State College $164,979.

A $2 million reduction in health care for the aged was reinstated, as was $200,000 to begin a program of retaining those who lose their jobs because of technological changes.

Civil defense, which had seen its entire $542,540 appropriation chopped away, got back $200,000. But $150,000 cut away from a proposal for a safety education and research center at Ohio State University was not restored.

Scholarship Loan Program

Some $100,000 was provided to get a scholarship loan program under way, and $30,000 for a commission to administer it. Ohio State University Hospital got back $200,000—half the amount cut from its appropriation.

The vote on the conference committee report was strictly along party lines with one exception. Rep. James J. Mc Gettrick, D-Cuyahoga, voted for the report. He was the only member of the Democratic minority to vote to accept it.

The two Democrats on the conference committee declined to sign the committee's report.

Although final approval of the budget bill takes some pressure off lawmakers, legislative leaders are doubtful that the backlog of important pending bills can be handled by the end of this week.

Father, Son Die Of Gas Fumes

Bodies Found in E. Liverpool Home

EAST LIVERPOOL — A combination of leaking natural gas and carbon monoxide fumes was blamed for the deaths of an East Liverpool man and his son, whose bodies were found early Thursday afternoon in their apartment in a double house on Elm St. here.

Dr. Roy Costello, deputy county coroner, ruled that Clold E. Boring, 76, and his son, Richard F. Boring, 46, died from asphyxiation. He estimated the deaths occurred about 10 p.m. Wednesday.

The men were overcome by deadly fumes emanating from an open jet on a heating stove in a vacant basement apartment directly beneath the Boring residence, and from two unvented gas hot water heaters in each ground floor apartment which supply water to the four apartments, Dr. Costello said.

Because the day had been chilly, the two men apparently had kept the windows closed Wednesday and had locked the door preparatory to retiring, the deputy coroner said. He theorized the men were in the kitchen and living room and said indications were that the son was stricken first and the father had gone to his aid when he was overcome.

The bodies were found about 1 p.m. yesterday by two employees of the A. and P. Supermarket, where the younger Boring was employed as assistant produce manager. They went to investigate when he did not report for work on time yesterday. Unable to get an answer to their knocks, they peered through the window and saw the two bodies on the floor of a hallway between the living room and the kitchen.

The bodies were taken to the Dawson Funeral Home. Arrangements are incomplete.

Seek British Withdrawal Deadline

UN To Hear Soviet Plans For Kuwait

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union is expected to demand that the Security Council set a deadline for Britain to withdraw her troops from Kuwait.

Soviet delegate Platon D. Morozov made plain he would seek to amend a British resolution calling on the United Nations to guarantee the independence of the desert sheikdom claimed by Iraq.

The Soviet diplomat charged the British resolution was a maneuver to justify the presence of British troops in the oil-rich Persian Gulf territory "and to legalize them there for an indefinite period of time."

In the council Thursday Britain again promised to remove her forces from her former protectorate the moment Kuwait's ruler, Sheikh Abdullah as-Salim as-Sabah considers Iraq's threat to take over his sheikdom has been removed.

Sheikh Abdullah has appealed to the British for military protection. The Kuwait education director Abdel Aziz Hussein, representing the sheik in the council debate, said Kuwait would ask the British to withdraw only after the U. N. affirms Iraq's independence, declares Iraq has no valid claim and admits Kuwait to U. N. membership.

As the council headed for a vote on the British resolution this afternoon, at least three members—Liberia, Chile and Turkey—indicated they felt the Kuwait-Iraq dispute should be left to the Arab League to solve.

However, a British delegation source said he was confident there are enough votes in the 11-member council to put over the resolution as a first step.

The move to shove the dispute to the Arab League drew a warning from King Saud that there can be no mediation unless Iraq drops its claim of sovereignty over its rich neighbor.

The Saudi Arabian monarch, who has sent troops to help defend Kuwait, told Arab League Secretary-General Abdel Khalek Hassouna "the issue is one of independence, or mediation over Kuwait's independence which has been recognized by all."

Tot Saved From Possible Drowning

Caroline's Rescuer Disclaims Heroism

BOSTON (AP)—A young mother who rescued 3-year-old Caroline Kennedy when she fell into water over her head at a private pool says "any of the mothers standing around could have done the thing I did."

Caroline, daughter of President and Mrs. Kennedy, apparently suffered no ill effects from her ducking in 4 or 4½ feet of water a week ago Thursday at the Bethesda, Md., home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton I. Steers Jr. Mrs. Steers is the daughter of Mrs. Kennedy's stepfather, Hugh D. Auchincloss.

The White House confirmed the incident after the Washington Evening Star told about it in a story by society columnist Betty Beale.

The rescuer was Mrs. William Saltonstall, daughter-in-law of U.S. Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass. Mrs. Saltonstall, 30, who is expecting a third child in the early fall, was at the children's party with her 3-year-old daughter Claire.

She told the Boston Traveler: "There were six or seven other mothers there also. We were all standing around the pool helping our children into their bathing suits and talking to each other."

AEC Building Underground Site In Nevada

Western Labyrinth May Test Neutron Bomb Capabilities

YUCCA FLATS, Nev. (AP)—Despite the 32-month ban on nuclear tests, the Atomic Energy Commission is busy building a sprawling complex of underground tunnels at its Nevada test site.

The AEC simply says it is preparing for the day if and when disarmament talks end—in discord. But some experts say the subterranean labyrinth 65 miles northwest of Las Vegas someday may be the site for testing of an ultimate weapon: the neutron bomb.

The neutron device, years away from the testing stage, is envisioned as a weapon which would destroy people but spare property.

Scientists theorize that the bomb, triggered above ground by a small blast, could loose a deadly rain of radioactivity, penetrating several feet of earth or concrete to kill or maim. But it would leave factories and homes virtually unscathed—apparently a desirable goal for any theoretical victor in a thermonuclear war.

The AEC refuses to comment about the neutron bomb, but there is speculation that research on the

Buffalo Girl Confesses To Boy's Murder

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Cheryl Jolls, 15, a schoolgirl with a history of mental disturbances, has sobbingly confessed that she bound and gagged Andy Ashley, 3, and says she left him at the edge of the park lake where he was drowned June 23, police report.

But the girl continued to deny that she drowned the blond neighbor boy, police said.

Police said Cheryl told a psychiatrist Thursday night that she also kidnapped another youngster, Richard Edgington, 5, who was found bound and gagged but unharmed the day before the Ashley kidnapping-slaying.

The girl has been undergoing mental tests at a hospital here since Tuesday. Police have obtained a warrant charging her with the Edgington kidnapping but have withheld it so far, pending the outcome of the psychiatric tests.

E. Palestine Chief's Dismissal Upheld

EAST PALESTINE — The dismissal of C. Richard Lotze as police chief was upheld by the Civil Service Commission Thursday night after a half-hour's deliberation.

Following the commission's announcement, which culminated four nights of hearings that began June 27, Atty. David B. Dickson, counsel for Lotze, stated he intended to appeal the ruling to Common Pleas Court at Lisbon.

Dickson said, "We find it necessary to appeal to Common Pleas Court where political considerations will not be involved."

The commission found Lotze guilty of seven charges and innocent of four others.

Although only nine charges were filed against Lotze by Mayor Robert Harding when he fired the chief June 1, two of the counts were broken down into two sections each.

Lotze was found guilty of falsification of work hours, slander of the office of the county sheriff, having improper relations with certain women of the community, insubordination to superiors, failure to maintain proper standards and conduct becoming a police

Mayors To Petition Commissioners

County Planning Board Is Urged

The Columbiana County Mayors Association, advocate of a county-wide planning commission, is going to petition Columbiana County Commissioners to establish a county planning board.

The mayors, meeting Thursday night at Lisbon village hall, voted to have their communities, separately, urge the commissioners to take the necessary action.

It was pointed out that, according to the Ohio general code, a majority of county communities having their own planning commissions can petition the county officials to take the necessary action to create and maintain a county planning board.

The petitions to the commissioners are expected to come from Salem, Columbiana, East Liverpool, Wellsville and East Palestine.

Mayor Dean Cranmer of Salem said he will urge the Salem Planning Commission to support the county proposal. Mayor Dean Stockman of Lisbon, secretary of the County Mayors Association, was instructed to contact the East Liverpool and East Palestine boards for support. Mayor Edward Calvin will seek Columbiana village endorsement of the county plan.

Solicitor Jack Kuhlman of Columbiana, the speaker last night, and Mayor Ralph Kennedy of Leetonia, president of the Mayors Association, declared that lack of a county planning commission was a deterrent to bringing new industries to this county. "State facts bear this out," Mr. Kuhlman declared.

The mayors also agreed last night to strive to get planning commissions formed in all county subdivisions, as well as the county proper. Salineville is in the process of organizing a planning board, Mayor Kenneth Leishman reported.

Other mayors attending last night were William Ferguson of

Youngstown Judge, Four Others Hurt

Probate Judge Clifford Woodside of Youngstown and his wife, Effie, both 70, were among five persons injured in a three-car collision on Rt. 18, near Lake Milton, at 6:35 p.m. Thursday.

Judge Woodside, who resides at 2404 S. Meridian Rd. in Youngstown, was treated at South Side Hospital for a bruised left leg and possible rib fractures. He was released after treatment, but his wife was retained overnight for observation. She suffered a bruised forehead.

Also injured were: Mary Kennedy, 55, of Youngstown — possible fractured left knee and ribs.

Joyce Turnage of Youngstown, passenger in the car driven by Mary Kennedy — contusions, abrasions and sprained back.

Thomas E. Phillips, 17, of Youngstown — laceration and possible fracture of left knee.

All of the injured were treated at South Side Hospital in Youngstown.

Richard Davis, 22, of Lakemore, driver of the third car involved, escaped injury.

The State Patrol said Davis failed to get stopped and crashed into the rear of the car driven by Mary Kennedy which had stopped to make a left turn off Rt. 18. The impact knocked the Kennedy vehicle across the center line where it was struck again by an oncoming car operated by Phillips.

The Woodsides were passengers in Phillips' car.

Auto Rolls Over On Rt. 39 West Of Wellsville

Salineville Man, Wellsville Woman Victims; One Hurt

A Wellsville woman who the State Highway Patrol said had no license or permit to drive and an elderly Salineville man who by chance happened to be a passenger in the car, both were killed at 2:45 this morning when the auto in which they were riding overturned on Rt. 39, two and a half miles west of Wellsville.

Dead are:

Mrs. Thelma Stewart, 30, of 729 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville.

John Henry Coe, 71, of RD 1, Salineville.

Floyd Stewart, husband of the driver, was a passenger in the car. He is in fair condition at East Liverpool City Hospital with a laceration of the scalp.

Mr. Stewart was cited by the Patrol for permitting his wife to drive without a license.

According to the patrol, Mrs. Stewart was driving west on Rt. 39 near the Frischkorn skating rink when she lost control of the car on a curve. It went off the right side of the road, then across the other side where it rolled over. The car tore up 40 feet of fence along the road. The car was demolished.

Mrs. Stewart, who was pronounced dead on arrival at East Liverpool City Hospital, suffered multiple injuries, including a broken neck, broken back, broken right leg, dislocated right hip, fractured skull, severe internal injuries, and severe lacerations of the chest and right shoulder.

Coe died of a fractured skull, internal injuries and severe lacerations of the face.

The Patrol said the Stewarts had apparently met Coe in a tavern and offered him a ride home. They said Mrs. Stewart had been working and her husband had brought the car to pick her up.

The double fatality marked the fifth and sixth deaths on Columbiana County highways this year. Last year at this time there were 13 highway deaths in the county.

The bodies were taken to the Haugh Funeral Home in Wellsville.

Three Persons Die In Crash On Turnpike

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—Two men and a woman were killed and a child was burned severely in the fiery collision of a truck and automobile on the Ohio Turnpike four miles east of Streetsboro today.

The Turnpike Patrol said the truck rammed the rear of the automobile in the westbound lane of the toll road.

The truck driver and a man and woman in the car were taken to Johnson Funeral Home in Hudson, and a boy of about 6 was rushed to Children's Hospital in Akron for treatment of severe burns on the lower part of his body, the patrol said.

Identification of the victims was delayed by out-of-state checking, the patrol said. The truck bore a Pennsylvania license plate and the car had New York tags.

Playboy Sheiks Form Opposition

Kassem Seeks Kuwait By Peaceful Means

BAGHDAD (AP)—Premier Abdel Karim Kassem of Iraq says he believes practically all Arab people—except the sheiks—support his claim to the newly independent sheikdom of Kuwait. But he pledged once more not to use force to get Iraq's tiny oil-rich neighbor.

Kassem gave his views Thursday in his first interview with Western newsmen since announcing last Sunday that he regards Kuwait as historically part of Iraq. He appeared in excellent spirits.

"We will never use any means but peaceful means," he said. "We will never resort to aggression."

"Again I must assure you Kuwait will return to the motherland," he said, adding "but we do not live in barbarian ages when brutal means are used to defeat the well-being of man."

Though Kassem told newsmen he was sure Iraq would get Kuwait without going to war, he didn't say how. He hedged on a question of a plebiscite among Kuwait's 320,000 inhabitants.

"There is a sort of zigzagging on this particular question," the premier said. "Would you like us to go to Aberdeen or Liverpool and ask if the people there wanted a plebiscite?"

Kassem said that except for a number of sheiks he denounced as corrupt playboys, "practically all the Arab peoples" support his claim.

He specifically excluded Saudi Arabian sheiks from his denunciation, although King Saud is the staunchest Arab backer of Kuwait's independence and has sent troops to the threatened sheikdom.

"Saudi Arabia is an independent state whose development is gradually benefiting people," Kassem said.

Sen. Kefauver Seeks Support For Drug Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., indicated today he hopes to draw support for his drug control bill from individual doctors.

The American Medical Association has taken a stand against many features of the bill.

Hearings on it by Kefauver's Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee recessed Thursday after two days of testimony from AMA witnesses. The hearings will resume July 18 with testimony from individual physicians.

Kefauver and his staff indicated they hope many of the witnesses, including noted members of some medical school faculties, will endorse all or most of his program.

The bill would place the drug manufacturing industry under strict new federal controls and policing.

The AMA opposed provisions to require federal testing of the effectiveness of drugs before they are sold to the public and placing in government hands the naming of new drugs and the policing of all advertising of drug preparations in medical journals.

The AMA has taken no stand on one of the bill's chief aims—to bring down prices of prescription medicine by amending the antitrust laws to force more competition among the big drug firms.

The AMA has taken no stand on one of the bill's chief aims—to bring down prices of prescription medicine by amending the antitrust laws to force more competition among the big drug firms.

Hemingway Buried In Peaceful Idaho Valley

KETHUM, Idaho (AP)—Ernest Hemingway, one of America's greatest writers, has been buried in the peaceful valley of this southern Idaho mountain community where he loved to live, to rest, to write, to hunt.

The grave is unmarked.

Simple graveside rites were held in the public cemetery on Thursday, attended only by members of the family and some close friends.

The Nobel prize winning author of "A Farewell to Arms," "The Sun Also Rises" and "For Whom the Bell Tolls," among others, was killed by a shotgun blast at his home here last Sunday. His death was ruled self-inflicted but no determination was made as to whether it was accidental or on purpose.

MORGAN THE PIRATE—Steve Reeves and Valerie Legrange star in the film, "Morgan The Pirate," which will be shown at the State Theater four days beginning next Wednesday. The film is centered around the exploits of the 17th century buccaneer, Henry Morgan.

Local Cheerleaders Win Laurels

Three honors were awarded to the Salem High School varsity cheerleaders at a cheerleaders camp held at Walden Woods Estates in Hartland, Mich., over the weekend. A clinic and contests were featured during the four-day event. The girls won a trophy for the most outstanding team at the camp, which is based on attitude, participation, ability, manners and co-operation. Miss Joyce Mallory was awarded a trophy for the third most outstanding cheerleader for the second year. A first place ribbon was presented the group for the most original cheer.

Anti-Negro Charge Enters Into New York Welfare Case

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Attempts of the city of Newburgh to limit the amount and duration of some welfare payments were defended by city officials today as morally sound and financially necessary.

But critics said the regulations were illegal, inhumane and founded on anti-Negro prejudice.

These were the opposing arguments readied for a hearing before members of the State Social Welfare Board on the Newburgh issue, which has become a focal point for broad debate on the entire scope of public welfare.

City Manager Joseph Mitchell said the city was determined to proceed "with social reform by whatever means within our disposal."

The State Social Welfare Department, which is governed by the board, has said several of the proposed rules in Newburgh were illegal. The department says non-conformity by one welfare district jeopardizes the whole state's claim to federal aid.

This would appear to eliminate any chance the board might give the Hudson Valley community permission to implement all of its rules as planned July 15.

The board is expected to specify which rules it approves and which it rejects. Efforts by the city to implement any rejected ones probably would lead to court action.

The proposed regulations that have brought about the most argument would:

1. Make the mother of one or more illegitimate children ineligible for further aid if she had any more such children.
2. Limit all welfare recipients except the aged, blind and disabled to three months of aid in any one year.
3. Limit the amount of money for a family to an amount no higher than wages of the lowest-paid city employee with an equal number of dependents.

The Welfare Department has said that legitimate need, not arbitrary standards, should govern payments.

Newburgh officials have said the city's taxpayers can no longer continue absorbing mounting relief costs.

Officials say 5 per cent of the population is on relief.

The city spends $900,000 a year for welfare, but nearly $500,000 of this comes from federal or state aid. The city estimates its own contributions to welfare costs this year at $450,000. The city budget is more than $3 million.

A large portion of the welfare recipients are Negroes, and the National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People has charged that racial discrimination figures in the welfare crackdown.

Present Force Set At 20 Divisions

No Soviet Military Buildups Witnessed In East Germany

WASHINGTON (AP) — The rekindled Berlin crisis apparently has sparked no Soviet military buildup in East Germany — at least not yet.

Informed sources say that, except for normal summer maneuvers, there have been no major Soviet troop shifts in that area since Soviet Premier Khrushchev reopened his Berlin offensive against the West.

The Soviets already have a formidable force in East Germany. According to latest estimates, there are 20 Soviet divisions there. Soviet divisions run to around 13,500 men each.

In addition, the East Germans have six divisions of somewhat dubious quality. Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia, two satellites adjoining East Germany, mount 14 divisions each. These units are believed below full strength.

There has been speculation the United States may send another division to join the five already deployed in West Germany, and perhaps take other steps to demonstrate U.S. determination to stand fast on Berlin.

French President Charles de Gaulle has indicated that one or more French divisions may be brought back from Algeria and perhaps shipped to West Germany where three other French divisions are based.

And there has been talk the British may move fighter planes, now based in England, to West Germany where three British divisions are posted as the army of the Rhine.

Given high marks by American experts are West Germany's seven divisions. By next year, the West Germans expect to boost this to 12.

It is estimated that the Soviets and their satellites together have between 3,000 and 4,000 combat planes in Eastern Europe, most of them fighters—and more, if needed, within reach in the western Soviet Union.

American authorities rate the Soviet troops in East Germany as well trained and well equipped, presumably with battlefield nuclear weapons.

The Soviet and American divisions arrayed in divided Germany "stack up pretty even," one official said. Another said the British and French divisions "are not too far behind us." And the Germans, he added, are "coming up all the time."

The five U.S. Army divisions in Germany are priority outfits being equipped with the latest weapons, including bombardment missiles capable of dealing an atomic blow.

Three are infantry units numbering about 13,700 men each two are armored outfits with a top strength of 14,617.

Bulls don't "see red" when the bullfighter flutters his cape. Bulls are capable of seeing only black, white, and shades of gray. What excites the big beasts in the bull ring? They are injured and goaded; the final insult is the teasing movement of the cape by the matador. And though his cape is a pretty sight to the aficionados, its blazing color has no effect at all on the color-blind bull.

The Conspiracy's Head Spieler

There was good fun and good eating and drinking at the United States embassy in Moscow on July 4. The traditional Independence Day blowout was a success.

Nikita Khrushchev and his associates were in good form. They belied, as they do on social occasions, the image created by their Communist predecessors. They were not dour. They were not reserved. They were not obsessed by their hatred of the United States and capitalism.

Chairman Khrushchev particularly was in a jovial mood. Out of his quips and sallies came a joshing remark by Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan.

Looking about his self-discipline in regard to a glass of whisky he was holding, Premier Khrushchev said his head would help him "repel" it; that he needed no rockets; that he needed no military uniform. Mikoyan thereupon quipped, "His weapon is his tongue."

KHRUSHCHEV'S and its tireless wagging have become an amazing phenomenon in the United States, where every syllable and inflection are reported, analyzed, enlarged on and looked into and under for hidden meanings. The most horrible fate that could befall Khrushchev would be to drop out of the news. He plays on public opinion and popular fear in this country like a musician plays an instrument.

Knowing that everything he says will be reported here, he makes certain his name stays before the U.S. public day in and day out. No politician in the United States, not even President Kennedy, has a heavier impact on American opinion.

There was the same fascination when Stalin was head of the Communist Conspiracy, but Stalin was a reserved man, full of plotting and suspicions. He never understood the possibilities of exploiting himself in the press of the United States and the world.

He was so obsessed with secrecy inside Russia that he overlooked the possibility of becoming the head spieler for his ideological pitch outside Russia. But not Khrushchev, a voluble man who acts as head pitchman for his ideology.

HE KNOWS HOW to make news. He may not have the genius of a professional public relations expert, but he has what every PR man would give his list of first-name contacts to have — automatic reception. All he needs to do is wag his tongue and everybody in the United States hears what he said. Mikoyan has spoken a great truth in jest.

If he could tell us what to do about this we would be everlastingly grateful, because the truth is we're as baffled as we were a while ago when a certain actress "owned" the U.S. press, in the sense that she could get her picture published at will—in fact without trying.

The way that finally worked itself out was that the poor girl ceased to have news value, but we hate to think we might have to wait for that to happen to Nikita Khrushchev, who understands that his news value depends on giving the American people something to be scared about.

If he ever started to coo like a dove of peace, no one ever would hear of him again. He knows that, too.

No Indemnity to Fidel Castro

Because it was held to be true that the White House had turned on a green light for the U.S.-tractors-for-Cuban-prisoners deal, it seems likely the White House must have turned off the green light and turned on a red one when the deal was called off.

In the meantime, the American people had a revealing experience that told them a few things they needed to know.

They learned anew about the danger of impetuosity — leaping before looking. When the Tractors for Freedom Committee, headed by Milton Eisenhower, Walter Reuther and Eleanor Roosevelt, materialized out of an offhand remark by Fidel Castro, many Americans were shocked. They could not believe anyone of high position would blunder into a trap like this one.

They predicted that Castro would wring out of the proposition every drop of advantage, then discard it. They said he would turn it into a tangle of Marxist dialectics, to frustrate Americans unaccustomed to dialectics, then terminate the whole fruitless discussion in a way to leave his opponents looking and feeling silly.

They warned that if by some mischance the deal did go through and Castro got the tractors he would not live up to his end of the bargain.

THEY POINTED to a succession of well-meaning attempts by Americans to reach agreements with Communist-dominated countries and to the moral that Communist countries are not interested in reaching agreements when they have the advantage—only when they are at a disadvantage.

And they declared what to them seemed so obvious they wondered why everybody wasn't aware of it — that Castro had proposed, in effect, that the United States pay an indemnity for its role in the Cuban invasion fiasco.

All these things were said in the open by skeptics. Significantly, those who favored the deal never had much to say in its defense.

One other thing was thought more often than it was said — that President Kennedy, assuming he had instigated the deal, was showing the result of lack of training for the presidency, one of the world's toughest administrative jobs.

An executive, unlike a legislator, does not have the privilege of throwing things open for interminable discussion while he makes up his mind.

EXECUTIVES must reach their decisions privately, after weighing all the evidence and calculating all the consequences. Then they must act, remembering that their actions, unlike laws, cannot be repealed if they turn out badly.

President Kennedy acted on a bum steer in the Cuban invasion. It looks as if he had another bum steer in the tractors-for-prisoners deal.

Everybody can breathe easier now that the committee has been disbanded and Castro has been told the United States has no intention of paying $28 million or merely $28 as indemnity in any shape, or form, public, private, or otherwise.

If Castro decides to kill the 1,197 invasion prisoners, all of them his own countrymen, that might turn out to be the end of Castro.

Seat Belts And Life Preservers

One of the lively arguments of our time is whether the universal use of seat belts by automobilists would make a deep dent in the highway fatality toll.

It's something like arguing that the fatality toll in Russian roulette would be reduced if one of the bullets left in the gun was a blank. That would give the player who didn't happen to pull the trigger on the unoccupied cartridge chamber one chance in five to come out alive.

The deepest dent in the highway fatality toll will be made when 99 per cent of all drivers on the highways become competent to drive automobiles safely. Seat belts help to save the lives of people unlucky enough to be in accidents, but that is scant comfort. The big thing is not to have the accidents.

While the argument continues, there is one safety measure that needs to be taken immediately — no time to waste on argument. The fatality total for the Independence Day weekend confirms what everybody feared would happen.

It turned out again that the most dangerous thing Americans do on summer holidays is to go in the water and on the water — 202 drownings and 62 boating fatalities, compared with only 503 traffic deaths.

When more than half as many Americans lose their lives in a hazard faced by only a small fraction as many of them as ride in automobiles, there can be no doubt that life preservers should be compulsory as of now. Seat belts could wait.

Once Over

Just read a newspaper story telling of a man—he had worked 60 years in a factory — being given TV set as reward for long services. We hope the set was at least a color-set, and that the gift included expenses for a year's repairs. Possible acceptance speech:

"Friends, I am overcome. When I entered this company's employ 60 years ago, little did I dream that on some far distant day I would be seeing all the 'Westerns' and get weather forecasts with illustrated maps. Such kind words as, 'Well done, good and faithful servant for those three-score years, and they entitle you to soap operas and panel shows on the house.'"

"I came here in 1901 determined to make good. I have given my best. To do half best is not enough. All I could get for that would be a used radio, maybe a crystal set. I remember my father's advice: 'Son, work hard, be faithful. Like the shoemaker, stick to your last! I forgot to ask myself: Suppose a shoemaker, after working in a shoe factory 60 years, already had a TV set?'"

"I appreciate this tribute to my long service. It makes a man feel worthwhile, assuming 'Young Dr. Malone,' 'To Tell the Truth,' 'The Price is Right,' and the night baseball games come through clearly. My only wonder is whether I am not too old and weary to stay up for the 'Late, Late Show.'"

The satisfaction of this gift will linger long. Whenever I find a tube burned out, I can realize what 60 years have done for me. Each time the focus-gadget doesn't work, I shall think of my finest hour here tonight. Gentlemen, I thank you."

SEC ANNOUNCES it will make and 18 month probe of securities markets. Holding the inquiry for the long pull, evidently, and not for a quick turnover.

President's committee will act as "fact finders" in shipping strike. It will be working in a heavy fog and radar may be necessary to locate even a low-visibility fact. Government and strikers may be on a collision course.

Ford Frick, baseball's czar, says all clubs agree new rules must be passed limiting b's for bonus babies. Its reached ludicrous point where a school kid with eight finger, two thumbs and no arthritis in either wrist can start life as a rich man.

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

While Victor Riesel is enroute to the Middle East and other news centers of the world to gather material for future columns some of the top policy-making leaders of the U.S. have agreed to substitute for him. Sen. John McClellan of Alabama is the first guest columnist.

By SEN. JOHN L. MCCLELLAN

In recent months some of our large corporations have been heavily fined and their top executives sent to jail for rigging bids and fixing prices in violation of our anti-trust laws. This action was not only proper but, I believe, long overdue.

In the same period of time we have witnessed Jimmy Hoffa, boss of the powerful Teamsters Union, actively promoting a plan to unite all labor unions of the transportation industry into a mutual-assistance pact for the purpose of supporting each other in collective bargaining proceedings and in the settlement of labor disputes with management.

The potential, and almost certain, consequences that would flow from such an alliance between all or most of the transportation unions in this country are indeed frightful to contemplate.

SUCH A COALITION, if consummated, would create exorbitant and monopolistic powers—economic, social, and political—and vest such powers in irresponsible organizations and individuals who under the law would be, in large measure, unaccountable to the people they serve and to our government for the legitimate and proper exercise of those powers.

Mr. Hoffa and his satellite unions would largely control the destiny of our free enterprise system and could on the slightest pretext and without any justifiable cause whatsoever compel management, the public, and the government to acquiesce in and submit to whatever arbitrary terms, unfair conditions and unreasonable demands they might choose to make.

Upon the slightest whim and caprice and upon a single command these unions could — and I have not the slightest doubt that they would — halt the flow of raw materials to our factories, and of manufactured products to our distribution centers and consumers, and paralyze and bring to a complete stop the wheels of commerce in every segment of our national transportation systems.

BY THE USE of the tremendous power that would be reposed in the heads of such a combination—and certainly by the abuse of it — supplies of food, clothing, and other absolute essentials of life could be shut off and denied to the people and the consuming public, until management and government, in abject and supine obedience, submitted to their extortionate demands.

Thus, if businessmen should be fined and sent to jail for monopolistic activities in the field of price-fixing — and they have been, and should be — should not a combine and conspiracy of disreputable union officials with powers to do even greater injury to the public be regarded under the law as a similar offense against the public and our government and be likewise punished?

To this, there can only be an affirmative answer. Our people must be protected from exploitation and flagrant abuses and impositions from either source — management or labor.

It is the duty of Congress to enact laws adequate to provide such protection. For that reason, I am preparing and shall soon introduce in the Senate of the United States legislation that would make transportation unions subject to the anti-trust laws and which consequently would outlaw any pact among transportation unions such as Hoffa has proposed.

Such a conspiracy — such force and economic power — must be proscribed by law just as a similar concentration of power in the hands of a corporate entity is now forbidden by existing anti-trust and anti-monopoly statutes.

ANOTHER DANGER of great magnitude to the survival of our country and of immediate public concern was revealed recently by the Senate permanent subcommittee on investigations in the shocking disclosures made of strikes, wildcat work stoppages, featherbedding, deliberate slowdowns, and the low productivity of labor at our missile bases.

Some unions, their members and workers, at Cape Canaveral and other missile sites, engaged in a form of extortion and blackmail, placing greed above patriotism.

Knowing full well that we were involved in a frantic space race with Communist Russia, they simply refused to work except on their own arbitrary, exorbitant, and expensive terms.

Thus, through various nefarious practices, they were able to garner weekly wages that ran in many instances in excess of $600 per week and to gouge millions of dollars that they did not earn and to which they were not entitled out of the federal government and out of the pockets of American taxpayers.

While doing this, they were callously making a most substantial contribution to our falling several months behind in the fateful missile competition with world-communism.

I also am preparing and shall introduce a bill to outlaw such conduct and prevent such actions.

The measure, however, will establish a tribunal to deal with and resolve such problems, grievances, and labor disputes as may arise between labor and construction or operation of any facility related to national security and our defense program.

I shall confidently press for congressional action — for the enactment of these laws that I here propose.

I believe them definitely to be in the national interest. They may well be absolutely vital to our security and survival.

Disquieting Rumors

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Military Bluff Could Prove Disastrous

Lately there have been rumors and stories floating around Washington that the United States is planning some kind of military mobilization. One report circulated in stock market circles has been that President Kennedy was being urged to declare a limited emergency, and that perhaps he would do it.

Nothing could worsen the situation more than tactics of obvious bluff. Any idea that a partial mobilization would at this time "show the Russians we mean business" is fallacious. With an open society like that in the United States and an uncontrolled press, every detail of such a mobilization would be published, and the Soviets would soon be able to measure how remote the possibility was that any such steps would mean anything in a military way.

The world has changed a good deal since the mobilization which preceded World War I in 1914. It started a chain reaction then that made war inevitable. It gave no latitude for negotiation of a peaceful settlement.

The same thing was true prior to 1939. Secret diplomacy produced an agreement between the Soviets and Hitler that actually bought on World War II. For Hitler was sure he could win with the help of Stalin's armies.

Today the Russians would like nothing better than an excuse to mobilize their own millions of soldiers. It would be welcomed in the Kremlin as an opportunity to divert the attention of the people from their food shortages and other internal troubles.

If it becomes necessary to have a showdown with Russia, it would be better to do it by the slow but effective methods of economic boycott and trade restriction without the spectacular measures that military mobilization involve.

Furthermore, the Soviets would be much more deeply impressed by any such program of sacrifice than by a theatrical demonstration on the military side.

EVEN CONCEDED that some military move is necessary, what should it be and how could it be carried out?

Is a mobilization of land armies in Europe of any real value in an era of missiles and long-range bomber planes?

Also, these days it doesn't mean much to place just an extra division or two in Europe or to go through some land or naval maneuvers. Demonstrations of many of the new weapons of war have been going on for some time now at Cape Canaveral and California bases.

As a matter of fact, the theory that a show of military might will prove anything to the Kremlin is based on the notion that the military superiority of the West is accepted in Moscow.

Khrushchev, of course, knows better than anyone else in the world that a nuclear war would not merely destroy much of his empire but would mean the end of Communist imperialism in these times, just as it meant the end of militarism in Japan and Germany 16 years ago.

It could produce internal revolution in Russia and in the satellite states.

It is a tragic commentary on the vacillation of America's diplomacy in recent times that firmness has to be simulated at all. There has been altogether too much talking big and then doing little to back up the words of the diplomats.

ONE REASON for this is the confusion in the Western camp. Each country not only feels it must have its formula of negotiation accepted, but there are times when one partner weakens and holds back the other allies.

What would impress the Kremlin more than anything else would be a demonstration of unity by the West. This means joint communications in unequivocal terms signed by all the partners, putting an end to the system of separate dealings with Moscow by Britain, France and the United States.

Nikita Khrushchev is counting, for example, on the divergence of view among the Western Allies as to the measures to be taken with respect to Berlin. He has seen no evidence that the Allies have united on any policy or have decided what they would do if Berlin's status is changed by force.

The most salutary thing that could happen would be for the Allies to define their position and stick to it.

Unhappily, while recent notes indicate adherence to the principle of retaining West Berlin as is, there is a hint of a willingness somehow to change — to retreat.

It is this backing and filling which creates the real danger. No amount of parading of military forces will alter the image of disunity which the Western Allies present from day to day in dealing with the crises provoked by the Moscow government. It's time for a demonstration of diplomatic unity.

Canada's Religious Issue

By CARL MOLLINS

TORONTO (AP)—An explosive debate over the teaching of religion in public schools has stirred the Toronto suburbs of North York where Jews, Unitarians and secular citizens groups are ranged against Protestant church leaders and Ontario education regulations.

The controversy is matched on a more subdued note in Quebec where a group of French-speaking intellectuals is campaigning for nonsectarian schools alongside the Roman Catholic and Protestant school systems, both supported by tax money.

Late last year in Calgary, Unitarians and Jews petitioned the local school board without success for the elimination of religion classes.

The issue of whether religious education has any place in state schools recurs in communities with mixed racial or religious background, which is to say most of Canada.

All 10 provinces permit Bible reading and recitation of the Lord's Prayer at daily school-opening exercises. Provision in provincial laws for formal classes in religion varies across the country.

Quebec law calls for religious instruction from kindergarten to grade seven in both Catholic and Protestant public schools. At the opposite pole, "no religious dogma or creed shall be taught" in British Columbia schools.

Maritime province schools may be used for classes in religion but only outside regular school hours. In Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Newfoundland it is left to individual school boards to decide.

In Ontario and Alberta, religion is part of the curriculum. Any Alberta school board may drop religion in its own.

The North York dispute arose when some teachers found themselves teaching Christianity to classes 80 per cent Jewish.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My wife is expecting her first baby in about four months. She's 21, in excellent health and everything seems to be going along fine.

The problem is her mother. She's scaring my wife to death with horror stories about labor pains and has just about talked her into having a Caesarian operation instead of natural birth.

I haven't said anything yet but I'm ready to tell my mother-in-law to keep her mouth closed. Would I be justified? How can I undo the damage already done? Please answer in your column.—

No Man's Land

Dear No Man's Land: Stop worrying. A Caesarian is a major operation and the doctor isn't going to agree to it unless there's a good medical reason.

Tip the doctor off so he can give your wife the reassurance she needs. The anesthetics available today, as well as the natural methods without use of anesthesia, have made childbirth much easier. Your mother-in-law is a generation behind.

Nebby Neighbors

Dear Ann: My next-door neighbor asked me if I knew my husband was driving a 20-year-old blonde to work every day. This girl lives in the next block and they work for the same company. I told my neighbor that I knew and that I didn't see anything wrong with it. She said I was pretty dumb because Edgar is in his foolish 50s and men get a little cuckoo about that time.

That evening I went to the girl's home and in the presence of her parents I told her to find other transportation. They were shocked and asked me to leave.

When I told Edgar how rude they had been he almost killed me for going over there. He said I had humiliated him and that I was 100 per cent wrong. Is it wrong for a woman to protect her home?—NO NAME.

Dear No Name: If you were unhappy about the blonde you should have discussed it with your husband, not the girl and her family.

Your gossip neighbor will be delighted to discover that she goaded you into making a jack-ass of yourself. For your husband's sake (and your own), I hope you'll drop a note to the girl and apologize.

Office Prima Donna

Dear Ann: This letter is being written by five office girls. It's the sixth girl who needs advice but she doesn't know it.

Miss X started here four months ago. She wears satin, lace, maribou feathers and what have you to work. We think she must be shortening someone's old formal gowns. These creations were never intended for afternoon wear.

Sometimes she wears mesh hose with backless slippers. The poor kid looks like she's headed for a costume party.

She's a very sweet girl from a small town and probably doesn't know better. Shall we form a committee and tell her?—WE MEAN WELL.

Dear Mean Well: This is a job that can be done best by the most tactful (and probably the oldest) girl in the office. It would be nice if that person offered to help her select some business-type clothes.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them here in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Barbs

An Ohio judge sent a man to jail for being habitually lazy. Hot weather is coming—better enlarge the jails.

The son of a man in prison for robbery was jailed for the same offense. Just an off-shoot.

County New Auto Titles Show Drop

LISBON — The number of new vehicle titles issued in Columbiana County during June was 364 compared to 398 last month and 492 in June last year.

A check of Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey's records for the first six months shows 1,824 new vehicles were titled. This is a 30 per cent drop from the 2,641 new vehicle titles in the first half of 1960.

The title department took in $5,206, of which the county received $3,910 and the state $1,296. Stacey said he paid the county treasurer $5,795 in fees collected in Common Pleas Court and the car title department.

He paid the state treasurer $6,386 from the collection of sales and use tax and $48,941 from the collection of the dealers tax. The county received $558 for its one per cent poundage fee.

Seventy-seven civil cases were filed last month in Common Pleas Court.

The title department issued 3,443 auto titles, 30 duplicate titles, 756 memorandums, 6 duplicate memorandums, 1,453 notations of liens, 1,261 cancellations of liens and 962 acknowledgments.

Purse Note May Hold Clue To Mysterious Car-Train Crash

SALEM, Va. (AP) — A note found in the purse of a woman injured when her car was struck by a train at a crossing here may hold the answer to whether the crash was accidental.

Salem Police Chief George Eades has declined to release the contents of the note and has indicated the information may not be released if the victim recovers.

The car, driven by Elizabeth Howard of nearby Roanoke, was struck by a train being operated at the time by her husband.

Eades said Thursday his department was investigating the possibility that the wreck Wednesday, "was not an accident," and he admitted finding a note with two names written on it in Mrs. Howard's purse. But he would say no more about the note.

Mrs. Howard, 39, was still unconscious and in serious condition at a Roanoke hospital Thursday night. Her husband, Ernest O. Howard, was taken to another Roanoke hospital. Officials there described him as emotionally upset.

Howard is the fireman on the freight train, but was temporarily at the controls when the collision occurred.

Witnesses said the car driven by Mrs. Howard was in the area for 12 minutes before the crash.

The couple was wed last Saturday evening in the parlor of the First Christian Church of Lisbon. Rev. William Spangler, pastor, officiated for the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate family. Vases of white gladioli and mums graced the room.

The bride is the former Miss Cecile Cunningham, daughter of Mrs. Adams and Ralph Cunningham of East Liverpool. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donahey of W. Lincoln Way.

The bride wore an aqua chiffon street-length dress of Grecian style, white lace mitts and a white hat. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and cascading satin wedding streamers.

Her sister, Miss Shirley Swearingen, was the maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a black sheath dress with white accessories complemented with a corsage of red roses.

Darrell Donahey was his brother's best man.

The mother of the bride chose a beige dress with black accessories.

Advanced Atlas Rocket Gets Successful Firing

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The business end of an Atlas missile hurtled out of the western sky like a blazing meteor and crashed into the Indian Ocean early today at the end of the longest military rocket flight on record—a 9,050-mile journey from Cape Canaveral.

The distance exceeded by only 10 miles the course covered by two Atlases also fired into the Indian Ocean last year. But, more important, it marked the first long-range success for an advanced Atlas being developed to carry blockbuster payloads almost halfway around the world.

The Air Force had been deeply concerned about seven failures in 10 previous test launchings of this new Atlas "E" series. But pleased officials reported after today's success that the problems appear to be licked. The huge missile, 58 feet tall and weighing more than 100 tons on liftoff, blasted off just before midnight Thursday night and darted into a star-filled sky. About 4½ minutes later, an inertial guidance system sensed the rocket was on the proper course and ordered engine shutdown and separation of the nose cone.

The 1½-ton cone followed a ballistic trajectory which carried it nearly 1,000 miles high and peak speed of 17,000 miles an hour. On its all-over-water course, the warhead zipped east of the tip of Brazil and south of the Union of South Africa.

Fifty-three minutes after the launch, two tracking planes and a ship followed the cone's fiery path as it plunged back into the heat barrier of the earth's atmosphere and dived on target about 1,000 miles southeast of Cape Town, South Africa.

The improved Atlas, made by General Dynamics - Astronautics, is the most powerful United States military rocket being test flown. Its three massive engines generate 400,000 pounds of thrust, 40,000 more than the earlier D missile, which has been operational nearly two years.

The E rocket, scheduled to become operational within a few months, is designed to carry a larger hydrogen warhead or to boost the present D warhead to targets up to 12,000 miles away.

AEC

project is going on at the commission's radiation laboratory at Livermore, Calif., birthplace of the hydrogen bomb.

The federal agency says the tunnels are being constructed for any use deemed necessary if and when the administration decides to resume nuclear testing.

Some U.S. experts contend the Soviet Union is exploiting disarmament talks and the test ban to speed development of a neutron bomb, and may have conducted secret underground tests of other nuclear weapons.

They claim such tests could go undetected if held in a large underground cavity, such as a deep salt cavern, where the atmosphere or surrounding earth would muffle or dampen the blast, reducing its seismic effect.

There has been some unofficial speculation that the underground tunnels in Nevada could be an ideal site for similar tests.

Recently, aviation-space editor Marvin Miles and photographer Larry Sharkey of the Los Angeles Times toured the bleak test area—48 miles long and 28 miles wide—under AEC supervision. Describing the tunnels, where miners are excavating 24 hours a day, Miles reported: "At the end of one shaft, a low firing chamber—70 inches high, 76 inches wide and 65 feet long—extended off a 14-foot high tunnel, and at its far end were three red-painted WPGZ (Working Point Ground Zero) markings to show the exact positioning of a nuclear testing device.

"This firing vault, obviously tailored for a specific test, is ready to go, equipped with gravel and plywood flooring, power lines, lighting, ventilation, etc., and awaiting only the installation of the device itself and its instrumentation."

Canfield Has Priority For Sewage Plant

Canfield in Mahoning County has been assigned priority by the Ohio Water Pollution Board for a federal grant for the building of a new sewage treatment plant in its area. It was one of 23 plant projects in the state to receive a priority.

The federal grant to Canfield is estimated to be $53,615 of the $198,000 cost of the project. Ohio has received about $1.6 million in federal assistance toward sewage plant construction in each of the last five years. This year the figure is expected to go up by about $1 million.

Commissioners Okay Travel Allowance

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners meeting Thursday approved a travel allowance for Cornelius Csepke, juvenile probation officer, to take a 13-year-old Salem boy to Boys Industrial School at Lancaster today.

Juvenile Court Judge Louis Tobin said he ordered the boy committed after a series of offenses and on the state diagnostic center's recommendation that the boy be placed under rigid discipline.

Commissioners yesterday received the monthly report of E. E. Patzsch, superintendent of Kyes Memorial Children's Receiving Home at East Palestine.

He reported the home took care of 19 children — 12 girls and 7 boys — last month. They ranged in age from 18 months to 18 years. The home served 650 regular meals, 218 bedtime meals and provided 221 days of care.

and Indian Ocean coasts make a long patrolling area for naval and air forces much larger than South Africa can afford. South Africa's defense minister, James J. Fouché, has recently been visiting Britain and other European countries to shore up this defense.

But the main concern at present is the 900-mile frontier between South West Africa and Portuguese Angola.

The chief immediate purpose of South African forces is to flush out or choke off gun running from Angola, or via the coast, to South West Africa's blacks and to prepare to repel any "terrorist" activity that may cross South West Africa's border with Angola.

Police Trick Proves Undoing of Lisbon Man

LISBON — Ultra violet powder sprinkled in several parking meters from which coins have been disappearing for several months was the undoing of Carl Fathery, 50, Brookfield Ave.

Charged with tampering with the meters and removing coins, he pleaded guilty Thursday before Mayor Dean Stockman who fined him $100 and costs and suspended a 30-day jail sentence on good behavior.

Authorities were unable to locate the key Fathery used to open the meters.

He was arrested June 28 in S. Market St. tavern and "glowed" when exposed to a special light. Police said the tavern owner told them Fathery cashed in $2.65 in pennies and nickels. His cash register also "lit up" under the light.

Fathery refused to sign a waiver of jury trial the day of his arrest but changed his mind this week after being held in the village jail in lieu of $500 bond.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stacey discussed the home preparedness award program, whereby any home may be qualified as prepared for any disaster, following fulfillment of 20 requirements.

Ohio Bigamy Law Loophole Closed

By Salem News Correspondent

COLUMBUS — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle signed Thursday afternoon a bill sponsored by Sen. Edmund A. Sargus, D-St. Clairsville, to close a loophole in Ohio's bigamy law.

Present law forbids a person with a husband or wife to marry another person, but says nothing about living with the second spouse. Thus, the attorney general has ruled that Ohio residents illegally married in other states cannot be prosecuted under this state's bigamy statute.

Sargus' bill broadens the scope of the law to include living with as well as marrying second spouses illegally. It becomes effective in 90 days.

Caroline

Suddenly I looked up and saw Caroline push off the edge of the pool clinging to a raft.

"Then to my horror she slipped from the raft and started to go down. I was about 10 feet from the edge of the pool. I ran and jumped over a small wall and leaped into the water. I was fully dressed at the time.

"I grabbed Caroline and pulled her to the edge. She looked at me, not a bit frightened, and asked why I had my clothes on in the water.

"I told her that having clothes on in the water was sometimes fun. That's about all that happened."

Mrs. Kennedy was not at the party. Caroline had gone there with a nurse and a Secret Service man. Steers and his wife also were absent and the family nurse, Kathryn Curran, was in charge. Miss Curran said no one had gone into the water when Caroline slipped into her suit and walked to the pool.

The Star said Caroline's nurse, unknown to the others, had gone into the house to change into her bathing suit when the incident occurred.

officer, inefficiency in the discharge of his duties and mistreatment of prisoners and illegal sale of city equipment.

He was declared innocent of creating dissension in the department, failure to properly supervise and train police recruits, failure to cooperate with superiors and maintaining an unlisted telephone at city expense.

Announcement of the commission's decision to uphold the dismissal was made orally by E. C. Milliken, chairman of the commission, who presided during the hearings.

Milliken said any one of the charges would have been sufficient for discharge on a guilty decision.

Recalled To Stand

Lotze was recalled to the stand for a 20-minute period last night by Atty. Jack H. Cohen, city solicitor who handled the prosecution. Lotze was asked to merely give yes or no answers regarding the truth of portions of previous testimony. In most cases he answered that the testimony was not true.

Following the commission's ruling, Lotze's attorney charged that the prosecution's case was built on half-truths and implications and constituted a "shotgun barrage of minor details."

Atty. Dickson stated the dismissal was a political move on the part of the administration and claimed that some of the patrolmen who appeared as prosecution witnesses were motivated by the possibility of personal advancement were Lotze's dismissal to be upheld.

The prosecution presented 13 witnesses during the hearings which were interrupted by two recesses. The defense called eight witnesses to the stand Wednesday night, including Lotze.

Last night's session began at 7 and the commission retired to deliberate at 9:05. The verdict was returned at 9:35.

The Common Pleas Court hearing on the matter is not expected to begin until the end of summer. Wallace F. Dilworth, a two-year member of the police force, is serving as acting chief.

Swine Breeders

Hear Two Speakers

LISBON — Thirty swine breeders and feeders of Columbiana and Mahoning counties heard talks on production and marketing during a twilight meeting Thursday at the farm of Darrell Bacon, association president, near New Springfield.

Ben Jenkins of the Cleveland Stock Yard Commission and W. H. Bruner, extension swine specialist at Ohio State University, were the principal speakers.

County Has 252 Federal Employees

Columbiana County has 252 federal civilian employees, it was reported today by a congressional committee investigating ways to reduce nonessential federal spending.

Gosney Explains Request For Columbiana Road Project

Don R. Gosney, Columbiana County Democratic chairman, today sent a letter to Ohio Highway Director E. S. Preston in connection with a proposed diversion of some funds allotted for an East Liverpool area segment of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway for another section of the road near Columbiana.

An East Liverpool Chamber of Commerce committee, headed by Atty. Francis Lang, is seeking a meeting with the highway head to object to the proposal.

Gosney today explained the proposed project under which a part of the new Route 11 would be constructed from Rt. 164 to Rt. 14-A. It would be a substitute for a long-time plan to eliminate a low underpass on Rt. 164 which has handicapped truck travel in the village area for many years.

Funds for the proposed Columbiana work would be diverted from a planned third segment of the river-lake road just north of East Liverpool.

Gosney's letter to Preston, which he released this morning, follows:

"I see by the newspaper that my good friend, Atty. Francis Lang, chairman of the East Liverpool Chamber of Commerce Highway Committee, wrote you a letter in regard to building a leg of Rt. 11 between Rts. 164 and 14-A.

"Knowing Atty. Lang and the other members of his committee, I know that if they had known the background on this situation, they, not being selfish people, would see that the village of Columbiana has been after relief on the low underpass on Rt. 164 for as many years as his group has been after the river-lake highway.

"You are aware that the village of Columbiana would much rather have a new underpass and bridge on Rt. 164 than they would a leg of Rt. 11.

"Mayor Erwood Calvin of Columbiana has worked for a long time trying to obtain access to the village's industrial area for trucks. However at the suggestion of the highway department, the new underpass was dropped because the department felt that by building this section of Rt. 11 near Columbiana, it would serve as a truck access route to the industrial area of the village.

"Thus this would save a huge amount of funds and only one project would be undertaken instead of two, and I am sure that everyone will agree that saving money in today's high cost of building highways is something we all want to do.

"As you know, in the past three years I have been in your department asking for projects in every community in Columbiana County except the village of Columbiana. I feel that every city and village is entitled to some project and I am sure you feel the same.

"The cities and villages of this county have always cooperated on an unselfish basis in the past in an effort to help each other obtain new highways and other projects, and I am sure that they will continue to do so.

Fred M. Campbell of Highland Ave., formerly associated with the Select Dairies here, has been elected president of Union Stockyard, Inc., at Lancaster, Pa.

Obnoxious Remarks

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a summer resort owner gets tired of hearing:

"If you ask me, it looks like rain."

"I admit the view is fine from your viewpoint, but, frankly, I expect more from a two-week vacation than just to look at the same bikini."

"I'd like to do something different for a change. Don't you have anything besides bird watching, golf, swimming, horseback riding, horseshoe pitching, movies, amateur theatricals, cocktail parties, tennis, volleyball, shuffleboard, bingo and bridge? I get so bored doing nothing."

"Better stuff some cotton in your ear, boss. Here comes Mrs. Atwater Bilge now. She's the one who found half a moth in her fruit cup."

"We've been here 10 days and haven't seen the sun once. We give up. Where are you hiding it?"

"Could you change my room, please? The man in the room next to me has a beard, and I don't like the look in his eye. No, he hasn't spoken to me—but I'm afraid he might."

"I know it's past the dinner hour, but all 10 of us got lost on the mountainside, picking blueberries, and we haven't had a bite to eat since."

"Could I get my husband in under the children's rate? He's been acting awfully childish ever since we started this trip."

"Let's don't stop here, Ralph. The resort down the road is 50 cents a day cheaper."

"How did you ever get into the resort business anyway? Just unlucky?"

"Sir, where do I report a Peeping Tom?"

"The travel agent told me this place would be crawling with eligible men, but the only thing the men I've seen here are eligible for is an old-age pension."

"Hey, boss, that married dame whose husband got called back to the city has climbed up on a table in the cocktail lounge again and is showing how to do yoga exercises. What'll I do with her this time?"

"If you carry out the bags yourself, Logan, you won't have to tip the boy at all. Let his father send him through college; it's not your responsibility."

"No, we're not staying. We just want to use your washroom. Our guidebook gives it a three-star rating."

"If this resort gave rainchecks, we'd all go home millionaires."

"Look! Is that the sun coming out at last—or just another mirage?"

Light-Hitting Indians Shut Out Again by Yanks, 4-0

Stafford Yields 2 Scratch Hits

Loss Is 19th in Last 27 Games;
Paul Says He Won't Fire Dykes

CLEVELAND (AP) — How do you stop a tailspin, such as that Cleveland is experiencing? The Indians have lost 19 of 27 games and have plummeted from a 1½-game lead in the American League on June 12 to 7½ games behind front-running Detroit.

The traditional "cure" is to fire the manager. But General Manager Gabe Paul, who watched the Indians bow to New York 4-0 in Yankee Stadium Thursday night, said he has no intention of getting rid of pilot Jimmie Dykes.

"It isn't the manager's fault when the club just stops hitting," Paul said. "You can't blame him for the players not getting any hits. Injuries to Jim Piersall and Woodie Held have hurt—both were hitting well."

Then came the vote of confidence.

"I have no intention of firing Dykes," Paul said.

Tribe Scoreless in 23 Innings

Cleveland hasn't scored a run in 23 innings, and has only one tally to its credit in its last 36 innings while losing four in a row.

Bill Stafford did the job for the Yanks Thursday night with a two-hitter in the Tribe's final game on an eastern swing which produced three victories in Boston and four losses to Baltimore and the Yanks.

The two hits Cleveland got were of the scratch variety—a bloop double by Willie Kirkland and an infield single by Mike de la Hoz.

"He pitched a no-hitter if you want to be honest about it," said Dykes.

New York's 22-year-old right-hander didn't walk a man and pitched to only 28 batters, one over the minimum. Stafford ran his record to 7-4, while Dick Stigman, the starter and loser, was tagged with his second defeat in four decisions.

Stafford and Stigman were hooked up in a good pitching duel for four innings. Each had permitted only one hit. Then Elston Howard picked on Stigman's first toss in the fifth frame and smacked it into the lower left field stands. That was enough for Stafford, but the Yanks added two more in that inning and sent Stigman to the showers.

Bill Skowron Doubles

Bill Skowron doubled. A walk and a single by Stafford produced one more run. Bobby Richardson's sacrifice fly, on which Don Dillard made a shoestring catch in short center, brought home the third run.

Howard homered again—in the sixth inning off Bob Allen.

The Indians go back to the firing line tonight with its most successful hurler—Barry Latman (7-0)—facing the Chicago White Sox and Ray Herbert (6-7).

Tiger Victory Keeps Yanks in 2nd Place

By The Associated Press
The New York Yankees remained within a half-game of first-place Detroit in the American League by beating Cleveland 4-0 Thursday night behind the near-perfect, two-hit pitching of right-hander Bill Stafford. It was the Yanks' second shutout success over the Indians in two days.

Detroit Keeps Slim Lead

Detroit stayed one percentage point ahead of New York after winning 3-0 at Boston, on the eight-hit pitching of Phil Regan and Terry Fox. Baltimore missed a chance to snatch third place from Cleveland when the Orioles were beaten 1-0 at Washington by Dick Donovan's four-hitter. The Chicago White Sox defeated Kansas City 4-3, with Early Wynn gaining his 29th career victory, and the Los Angeles Angels replaced Minnesota in eighth place by beating the Twins 12-11.

Rocky Colavito's sacrifice fly in the first inning gave Detroit the run it needed against Boston's Galen Cisco (1-3). Pete Runnels had half of the Red Sox' hits, all off Regan (8-4), who needed relief from Fox for the final out.

Jack Grace Fires Net 29 At Flying B

Jack Grace fired a net score of 29 to lead the Powder Puff Beauty Salon to a win over Lincoln Machine in the Flying B Golf League last week.

Grace helped the Beauty Salon grab 15½ points from Lincoln and knock the losers from fifth to seventh position.

Demps Balesky shot a gross total of 36 to lead his second place Penn Grill squad to a victory over the league-leading Corso Wine Shop aggregation but the win failed to move Corso's out of top spot.

Gilbert's Drive-In kept in third place mainly on the strength of Ed Mozzina's gross 38 score. United Tool & Die jumped from eighth position to sixth by downing Ruffer Construction.

The first half of the league will end July 16. The league field day will be held July 22. The events and prizes will be listed on the club house bulletin board.

The league standings are as follows:

Team	Pts.
Corso's Wine Shop	111½

Powder Puff Beauty Salon	83
Gordon Scott Sports	76
United Tool & Die	69½

NBA Tells Patterson To Defend His Title

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Boxing Association faced a showdown today in its effort to make heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson defend his title by Sept. 13 against one of the six top NBA contenders.

The virtual ultimatum was greeted with jeers by the promoter of the planned Patterson-Tom McNeely title fight in Boston.

The NBA charges McNeely is not a qualified contender, and warns it may strip the champion of his crown if he goes through with the match.

"Ridiculous," said promoter Tom Bolan. "They didn't take the title from Ingemar Johansson and it was a year before he fought Patterson a return bout."

Bolan said the NBA edict will not influence his plans to stage the bout.

Italian Club Bumps Old Dutch in Class A

Old Dutch Defeated; Class AA Tightens Up

Things are getting tight in the Class AA softball league as only one and a half games separates fourth place Shaffer Ford from league-leading Old Dutch after Thursday's three battles played at Kelley Park.

Old Dutch was knocked off 13-3 by Shaffer Ford; Industrial Mining had a chance to gain a tie for first but dropped a 9-3 decision to Herron Transfer and fell to third place as Stepanic's Tavern moved into second with an 11-4 triumph over Demings's.

In the lone Class A en counter second place Italian Club rolled to its 10 win in 15 outings by tripping Old Dutch, 3-1.

THE CLASS AA standings show Old Dutch on top with a 7-4 mark; Stepanic's sports a 7-4 record, a half game off the pace; Industrial Mining is 6-4, one game back, and Shaffer Ford is 6-5 on the season, one and a half games out of first.

Old Dutch jumped out to a 2-0 margin in the first frame on a double by Jim Weizeneker and a single by Jerry Mountz, along with two walks.

A five-run fifth inning moved Shaffer Ford into the lead to stay. Six singles in the frame produced the three-run lead for the winners.

Shaffer's iced the contest by tallying eight runs in the sixth and seventh innings while holding the losers to only one run in the fifth frame.

Pacing the 16-hit attack for Shaffer Ford were Billett with two singles and a homerun and Hiner with two singles and a triple. Jack Brudery, Feicht, Ferguson and Ken Brudery added two hits apiece.

Jerry Mountz and Jim Weizeneker rapped out three hits apiece to total six of the seven Old Dutch safeties. Baker socked the seventh Old Dutch hit.

Stepanic's Tavern broke a 4-4 tie in the third frame by pushing two tallies across and added five more in the fifth on a grand slam homerun by Myers.

NINE DEMING ERRORS aided the Stepanic attack as both teams smashed out seven hits each.

Late Models, Amateurs on Canfield Slate

The spotlight will be on Bill Forney of Youngstown and Bud Middaugh of Massillon when the late models and amateurs get together Saturday night at Canfield Speedway.

Forney last Saturday night won the 50-lap late model season championship to regain the Canfield point leadership, while Middaugh captured the 40-lap amateur midseason title on Tuesday night.

Some 55 cars will be on hand for the eight-race program, which will feature a 20-lap race for the amateurs and a 25-lapper for the late models.

The amateur field continues to grow as a total of 33 cars were on hand for the all-amateur card.

Terry Smith of Woodworth gained his first victory of the season by taking a heat race; then he came back to take the consolation.

Bob Bowen of Conneaut showed plenty of form by taking a win, while Dave McMurray wheeled his Buick to a triumph for the first time by winning the pursuit. The Boardman speedster also was second in a heat duel and fourth in the 40 lapper.

Paul Kerr of Youngstown, along with several other pilots, will have to make some repairs. Kerr broke his radiator, while Jim Steinbeck of Youngstown jumped the fence. Ron Taylor of Youngstown, making his first start, flipped to become a charter member of the upside-down club.

All of these drivers along with a host of others will make up the amateur field.

Forney will have plenty of competition in the late model events as Jim Bickerstaff of Youngstown will be on hand. Also slated are Dick Lantz of Newton Falls, Frank Myers of Warren, Wimpy May of Auburn Corners and many others.

Time trials are at 7 and first race at 8:30 p.m.

New Browns Passer Throwing At Hiram

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Quarterback John Roach, obtained by the Cleveland Browns in a trade with the St. Louis Cardinals, was on the field and throwing passes here Thursday, less than 24 hours after he learned of the trade.

"The other passers are up at a meeting," coach Paul Brown told Roach when he reported at the Browns' quarterback school. "Take your coat off and throw a few passes. We're working on some patterns."

The trade, which sent halfback Prentice Gautt and Tax Anders a rookie end from Georgia Tech, to the Cardinals, could touch off some further swapping.

The Browns opened their three-day quarterback school Thursday with three experienced quarterbacks. Milt Plum rats as No. 1, but Len Dawson, slated to be his understudy, could become expendable with the acquisition of Roach.

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Cincinnati Reds, who open a four-game series against second-place Los Angeles tonight, won their sixth in a row and kept a three-game lead in the National League by beating San Francisco 3-2 Thursday.

The Dodgers thumped St. Louis 10-1, ruining Johnny Keane's managerial debut with the Cards as a successor to Solly Hemus.

Pirates Split With Cubs
Pittsburgh split a doubleheader at Chicago, breezing 15-3 before the Cubs bounced back for a 5-1 decision. Milwaukee wrapped up a three-game sweep against last place Philadelphia with a 7-6 victory.

The Dodgers collected a dozen hits, all but two of them singles, and five unearned runs against the Cards, turning a 2-0 lead into a rout with a seven-run third inning against loser Bob Miller (1-3) and reliever Maury McDermott. Right-hander Don Drysdale won his second this month with a five-hitter.

The Reds jumped 7½ games in front of the third place Giants by tagging relief ace Stu Miller for a decisive, seventh-inning run on Frank Robinson's triple and a single by Gus Bell. Southpaw Jim O'Toole (7-7), winless in his last four starts, shut out the Giants on three hits until the seventh inning. Juan Marichal (6-6) was the loser.

Clemente Drives In Five
Roberto Clemente drove in five runs with five hits, one a two-run homer in the opener for the Pirates, then added two hits in the nightcap to boost his average to .351. Bob Friend (9-9) was the first-game winner. Dick Ellsworth (3-6) lost it.

The Cubs nailed the second one with a four run second inning beating Wilmer Mizell (4-7). Glen Hobbie (6-9) was the winner. Milwaukee blew 3-0 and 5-2 leads, then came from behind against the Phils and losing reliever Don Ferrarese (1-5) with two runs in the seventh inning. Johnny Antonelli, 0-4 in the American League with Cleveland, won it in relief by facing just one man in his return to the NL. Don McMahon saved it with two perfect innings of relief.

In the years 1825-1848, freight and passenger hauling canals were built across New York state to connect the Atlantic and the Great Lakes; across Ohio to connect the Ohio River system with Lake Erie; and across the highlands of Illinois to connect the Mississippi River system with Lake Michigan.

The advancement and development of this nation in the mid years of the past century in large measure resulted from the use of these canals.

In Ohio, the two canal systems from Toledo to Cincinnati and from Cleveland to Portsmouth not only served a valuable purpose when they were operating, but they have left their mark on the countryside and gave us a heritage in recreational facilities most valuable to us today.

The Portage Lakes at Akron were water reservoirs on the Ohio Canal. Today they provide boating and fishing for thousands.
